The Springwater Corridor is a 20-mile-long corridor that extends from the city of Boring to the community of Clackamas, providing a range of transportation options, including trails for bicycling, walking, and jogging. It connects various neighborhoods and provides access to important destinations.

The corridor includes several sections that offer unique features:

1. Springwater Corridor Trail
   - Begins at SE Ivon Street and extends to SE 162nd Avenue.
   - Features grade-separated bike-pedestrian only crossings.
   - Connects to other trail systems like the I-84 Trail.

2. Blue Lake Corridor
   - Located in the Blue Lake Neighborhood, this section connects to the Columbia River Trail.
   - Offers views of the Columbia River and surrounding wetlands.

3. Tualatin River Corridor
   - Located in the Tualatin River Neighborhood, this section connects to the Tualatin River Greenway.
   - Provides access to riparian areas and wetlands.

4. Westmoreland Corridor
   - Located in the Westmoreland Neighborhood, this section connects to the Westmoreland Park.
   - Offers access to parks and other recreational areas.

5. Portland-C발court Corridor
   - Located in the Portland-C발court Neighborhood, this section connects to the Peninsula Park.
   - Provides access to parks and other recreational areas.

The Springwater Corridor has been developed over time and is continuously evolving to meet the needs of the community. It is a valuable asset to the city of Portland and its residents.
